Working with SingHealth

Group Procurement Office

SingHealth Group Procurement Office serves the largest public healthcare cluster in Singapore. In the service that we manage, we believe in driving sustainability in our business relationships. We believe that fair competition will motivate our partners/suppliers to invest in bringing the right solutions to bring about the best in healthcare outcomes.

The following highlights are some of the critical business conducts that SingHealth GPO upholds, and sees critical to a sustainable business relationship with suppliers.

Supplier Business Conduct Legal Compliance

SingHealth conducts business responsibly and in compliance with legal requirements and governmental regulations of Singapore.

- The company will not tolerate any illegal or non compliant behaviours.
- We expect all employees to behave in an ethical and law-abiding manner, in their interaction with each other, our patients and partners/suppliers.
- Legal compliance is a critical part of our primary duties, and we expect the same enforcement from our suppliers.
- Being a SingHealth supplier means you commit yourself: to comply with the governing laws of Singapore.

Supplier Business Conduct

Prohibition of corruption and bribery

SingHealth strives to execute our business conduct with the highest level of integrity, and to uphold standards of fair practices.

- We do not tolerate any form of corruption and contraventions.
- The selection of suppliers are, in line with compliance requirements, and each sourcing event is properly and fairly evaluated, and managed by an appointed team.
- We expect suppliers to conduct themselves in the highest standards of integrity Any and all forms of corruption, extortion and embezzlement are strictly prohibited resulting in immediate termination and legal actions.
