

SINGHEALTH DUKE-NUS MEMORY AND COGNITIVE DISORDER CENTRE SCIENTIFIC MEETING 2021

In conjunction with World Alzheimer's Day

23 & 24
SEPTEMBER 2021

The Journey with Dementia - from ageing to disease, from home to hospital to community care

Topic Highlights

23 September 2021, 8.00am - 1.00pm

- The role of primary care in early diagnosis of dementia
- When is it dementia - from preclinical Alzheimer's disease (AD) to disease
- The ever confusing 4Ds - delirium, depression, dementia, drugs
- Delirium and depression as a risk factors of dementia
- Dementia and epilepsy
- White matter and cognition
- Role of exercise and diet as modifiable risk factors
- Caregivers: Our partners in this journey
- Assessment for mental capacity

24 September 2021, 8.30am - 12.30pm

- The role of hospital in dementia care - Joining the dots in dementia care from centre of expertise to community
- The role of using iPads as a novel intervention for the older patients in hospital
- Palliative care in dementia
- Advance Care Planning preferences and outcomes among elderly patients in Geriatric Medicine
- The journey of a Person with Dementia (PWD) in the nursing home
- New model of care for Person Living with Dementia (PLD) in a nursing home

Information & Registration

Scan the QR Code or visit

<https://www.nni.com.sg/events/education/sddc2021>

This meeting is conducted online via Zoom.

Organised By

Sponsored By

